LYCOMING COLLEGE

1995-96 PRESIDENT'S REPORT

LYCOMING COLLEGE

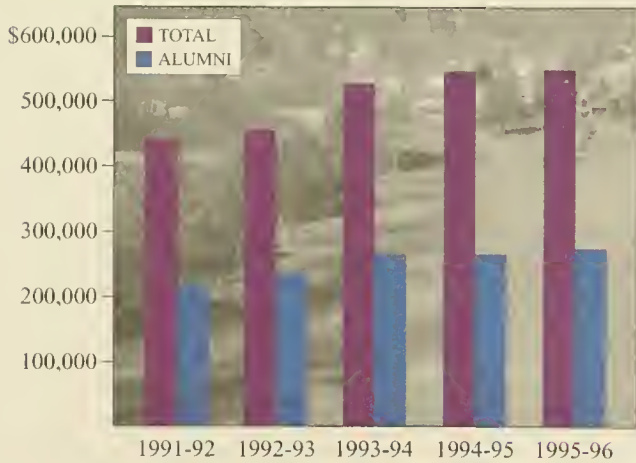

For the first time ever, the Lycoming College Annual Fund has topped the $600,000 mark in restricted and unrestricted giving for current operations support. This feat puts Lycoming one step closer to our goal of attaining a $1,000,000 Annual Fund.

All gifts to the College, including gifts to the endowment, totalled over $5,000,000 this year, the second highest gift-giving year on record.

Where We Stand

A $1,000,000 Annual Fund will put Lycoming in line with our peer institutions, some of which have already achieved this goal as well as others who are well on their way toward this major summit in annual fund-raising.

When we compare Lycoming's unrestricted giving portion of the Annual Fund to that of the colleges and universities with which we compete for students, the 1995-96 standings are as follows:

Bucknell:	$2,584,506
Franklin & Marshall:	$1,735,000
Allegheny:	$1,714,000
Gettysburg:	$1,628,000
Muhlenberg:	$1,528,000
Juniata:	$1,051,000
Albright:	$882,253
Susquehanna:	$839,718
Lebanon Valley:	$714,183
Widener:	$632,362
Wilkes:	$582,000
Lycoming:	$567,598
Elizabethtown:	$502,946

The Importance of the Annual Fund

Over one-half million dollars ($567,598) of the Annual Fund represents unrestricted funds—money that is available to the College for immediate and discretionary use.

It is this type of unrestricted giving that allows Lycoming to keep tuition as low as possible and to offer financial aid packages that often make a difference between a student coming to Lycoming or going elsewhere—or not going to college at all.

Annual Fund gifts are also important because they have an enormous impact. For example, it is important to note that it takes $200,000 in endowment (at a five percent rate of return) to generate the Annual Fund equivalent of $10,000 in immediate revenue.

A Barron's Best Buy

Lycoming College is doing its part to keep its costs in line while continuing its mission of offering a distinguished baccalaureate education. This year it was rated by Barron's as one of 299 of the nation's colleges to be included in Barron's 3rd Edition of Best Buys in College Education.

The colleges were selected from over 2,000 institutions based on price (tuition and fees), quality of faculty (percentage with Ph.D.'s), percentage of entering freshmen who graduate, and percentage who get graduate degrees.

Student satisfaction also played a significant part in making the final list. To assess satisfaction, the guide relied on information from questionnaires sent to 20 students at each institution.

The guide cited close relationships between faculty and students

1995-96 Lycoming Giving Facts

- Gifts to the College this year totaled $5,008,077. This is the second highest amount ever received.
- 3,928 of our alumni, parents and friends made gifts to the College this year.
- This year, the Class of 1927 gave the most — $375,700.
- The Class of 1932 had the second highest total of $138,276.
- The Class of 1995 had the highest participation rate this year: 30%.
- The Class of 1973 had the second highest participation rate with 29% of its members giving.
- Overall gifts ranged from $1 to $370,000.
- Average overall gift for all purposes: $634.
- Average alumni gift for all purposes is $88.

at Lycoming. One student was quoted as saying “Lycoming has given me the knowledge I need to be not only successful but happy in my life after school.” The guide also noted the College’s excellent nursing program and its facilities in the sciences and arts.

Financial Aid Need

Despite the value of Lycoming College, the vast majority of our students (81%) need financial aid. Few families today can afford to write a check for $19,900 each year—Lycoming’s tuition, room and board. Lycoming students work, take out loans, rely on family resources, which are often more loans, scholarships, and federal and state aid. But as cut-backs have occurred in federal and state aid, even more students from lower and middle income families are seeking a college education. Lycoming has tried to meet this need with a financial aid budget that has increased more than 70% in the last five years.

Clearly, Annual Fund gifts that help meet the unmet financial needs of deserving students can have a lifetime impact.

Participation; the Fund-raising Dilemma

Over the past few years, a national trend has developed in annual gifts to colleges and universities: institutions are receiving more money, but from fewer donors.

This is a trend that has overtaken Lycoming College as well.

Yet participation is a very important component. When national foundations and corporations consider Lycoming for major grants (which greatly enhance our academic programs for students), one of the top indicators that they review in our application process is the percentage of donors who participate in the Annual Fund. After all, if our alumni, parents and friends support us at all levels, it signals a commitment to the organization that justifies their investment in us.

1995 in a Class by Itself

One of the brightest notes of the year is the record participation in the annual fund by the Class of 1995 which achieved a 30% participation barely one year after graduation. We hope that this support from young alumni is the beginning of a new Lycoming tradition.

In the future, Lycoming's goal will be to increase the number of overall donors, and especially the number of alumni, who give to the College annually.

We thank all of our many supporters who have expressed a faith in Lycoming College and a commitment to the education of a future generation through their generous support.

Together, we can make a real difference.

Would You Help?

We are looking for alumni, parents and friends to volunteer to ask others for gifts on behalf of Lycoming College. Many colleges and universities have extensive volunteer programs in place that have served to significantly raise the number of donors like never before.

If you are interested in talking about Lycoming to your fellow classmates, other parents or local neighbors, please call the Annual Giving Office, at 1-800-345-3920, ext. 4057.
